

Valérie Britay appointed Executive Director Offices

Gecina is further strengthening its Executive Committee with the arrival of Valérie Britay to head up its Office division.

Valérie Britay, 54, has a master in management and a postgraduate DESS in marketing from Paris-Dauphine University, and is a seasoned professional in commercial real estate industry. She has been with Unibail-Rodamco since 2005, serving as Commercial Director then Deputy Managing Director of the Office division, before being appointed Managing Director Retail France.

Valérie Britay will be joining Gecina, France's leading office real estate group, in summer 2017 as the executive director of its Office division.

Méka Brunel, Chief Executive Officer, is delighted to “welcome on board this outstanding real estate professional who will actively contribute to the achievement of our ambitious objectives for growth”.
