

Olivier Dangréaux appointed Head of IT and Digital

Olivier Dangréaux has joined Gecina as Head of IT and Digital. His missions will include supporting the Group's transformation and accelerating its digitalization.

With an MIAE master's in IT and business from Lille University, Olivier Dangréaux, 56, has 25 years' experience in organization, information systems and digital transformation for businesses. From 2006, he was Head of IT and Digital Systems for Icade.

Gecina, living the city in a different way

Gecina owns, manages and develops property holdings worth 19.5 billion euros at end-August 2017, with nearly 92% located in the Paris Region. The Group is building its business around France's leading office portfolio and a diversification division with residential assets and student residences. Gecina has put sustainable innovation at the heart of its strategy to create value, anticipate its customers' expectations and invest while respecting the environment, thanks to the dedication and expertise of its staff.

Gecina is a French real estate investment trust (SIIC) listed on Euronext Paris, and is part of the SBF 120, Euronext 100, FTSE4Good, DJSI Europe and World, Stoxx Global ESG Leaders and Vigeo indices. In line with its community commitments, Gecina has created a company foundation, which is focused on protecting the environment and supporting all forms of disability.
