

Laurent Bataille appointed as Gecina's Technical Director

Laurent Bataille has joined Gecina as Technical Director, reporting to Valérie Britay, Executive Director Offices. He will be responsible for office and residential assets. He will also provide support and expertise for the Group's development projects and investments.

A Polytech Lille graduate, Laurent Bataille, 55, brings nearly 25 years' experience in the mass retail sector, after starting out in his career with Bouygues. He notably worked for Auchan, where he held various roles in the group's technical and real estate departments, before moving to the Carrefour group in 2011 as VP Group Assets, then Technical Director France.

Gecina, living the city in a different way

Gecina owns, manages and develops property holdings worth 19.6 billion euros at end-2017, with nearly 93% located in the Paris Region. The Group is building its business around France's leading office portfolio and a diversification division with residential assets and student residences. Gecina has put sustainable innovation at the heart of its strategy to create value, anticipate its customers' expectations and invest while respecting the environment, thanks to the dedication and expertise of its staff.

Gecina is a French real estate investment trust (SIIC) listed on Euronext Paris, and is part of the SBF 120, CAC Next 20, CAC Large 60, Euronext 100, FTSE4Good, DJSI Europe and World, Stoxx Global ESG Leaders and Vigeo indices. In line with its community commitments, Gecina has created a company foundation, which is focused on protecting the environment and supporting all forms of disability.
